The Rockingham County Public Library has a fiduciary responsibility to Rockingham County and to its citizens to recover all materials and fines owed to the Library.

The Library will pursue all reasonable means to recover materials that have not been returned and any fines or fees associated with the unreturned materials. If the materials have been returned the Library shall pursue any monies due.