It is the duty and responsibility of all staff members to maximize the collection of funds for the Library. These funds directly impact the funds available to the library and the county. If a patron’s record indicates that they owe money, always ask if they would like to take care of what is owed at the time.

Using the computer with fines over $5.00

Any patron whose card is not in good standing may pay at least $1.00 on their account and checkout computer time for that visit.
